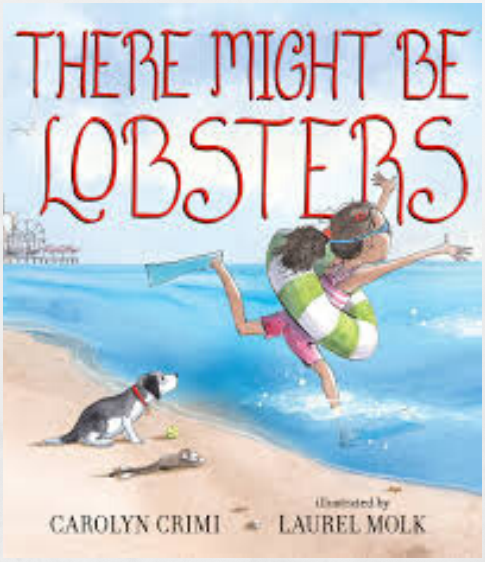
THERE MIGHT BE LOBSTERS

By: Carolyn Crimi



SONG

LOBSTER HOKEY POKEY

You put your lobster claws in,
You take your lobster claws out,
You put your lobster claws in
and you snap them all about.
You do the ocean motion
and you turn yourself around,
That's what it's all about.
(Continue with a hard shell & tail)

RAISING A READER TIP OF THE DAY

Encourage your child to verbalize the sequence of today's story.
What did Eleanor want Sukie to do first at the beach?
What did Eleanor want Sukie to do next?
What happened to Chunka Monkey?
What happened at the end of the story?
Did they see any lobsters?
